Michigan State University
Certification of Hazard Communication – Right to Know Training

I_____ certify that the following affected employees have received and understood Hazard Communication – Right to Know.
(print full name)

Hazard Communication training, which included the following: Contents of the MIOSHA MRTKL and how it pertains to an individuals job, any operations in the employee's work area where hazardous chemicals are present, location and availability of the MSU Hazard Communication Document, a departmental list of hazardous chemicals, and explanation of MSU's labeling system, and explanation of the material contained on an MSDS, methods and observations used to detect the presence of a hazardous chemicals, measures employees can take to prevent exposure to hazardous chemicals, location of MSDSs, hazards of non-routine tasks, hazards contained in unlabeled pipes in the workplace. This training is in compliance with the State of Michigan Right to Know Law (Act No. 80 Amendments to Act 154 Michigan Occupational Safety and Health Act.

Name	Signature	Job Title	Date of Training