<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Waste Category</th>
<th>Examples</th>
<th>Treatment/Disposal</th>
<th>Container</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| Liquids    | • Blood tubes (including from chemotherapy)
• Smaller sealed containers of blood | • Collect in sturdy plastic bottle with lid. Do not alter container opening for tube size.
• EHS provides labels.
• Submit for EHS Pickup within 90 days | Label and bottle |
|                | Larger volumes
• blood
• blood products
• body fluids
• serum
• cell line waste | Autoclave then discharge to sewer
Or
Chemically disinfect then discharge to sewer | Sanitary sewer |
|                | Any of the above fluids from chemotherapy
• Trauma surgery fluids
• Urine | Collect in autoclavable biohazard bags. After autoclaving place in black bag then dumpster.
If no autoclave submit EHS waste request | Sanitary sewer |
| Solids     | Items that are contaminated with:
• potentially infectious materials
• recombinant DNA material | | |